The APPALACHIAN Simple Lifestyle Calendar

Our black & white wall calendar (11" x 17") offers a unique collection of special days, celebrations, moon phases and seasonal lore - all printed on recycled paper. Wisdom, wonder, quotes and humor - with 366 suggestions to help you listen to the simple, natural rhythms that lead to a more balanced and fulfilling life.

Your Support Makes a Big Difference for Public Interest and the Environment! All calendar sales proceeds support Appalachia-Science in the Public Interest, and tax-deductible gifts from donors allow us to continue our environmental efforts (since 1977) for healthy land and sustainable communities in Kentucky and Central Appalachia. We use community education, advocacy, research, consulting, and demonstration projects to promote innovative ideas and appropriate technologies. Please support ASPI's non-profit mission and help us keep the promise of positive change in Appalachia alive.
