The APPALACHIAN Simple Lifestyle Calendar

Our black & white wall calendar (11" x 17") offers a unique collection of special days, celebrations, moon phases and seasonal lore - all printed on recycled paper. Wisdom, wonder, quotes and humor - with 365 suggestions to help you tune into the simple, natural rhythms that lead to a more balanced and fulfilling life.

Your Support Makes a Big Difference for Public Interest and the Environment! All calendar sales proceeds support Appalachia-Science in the Public Interest, and tax-deductible gifts from donors allow us to continue our environmental efforts (since 1977) for healthy land and sustainable communities in Kentucky and Central Appalachia. We use community education, advocacy, research, consulting, and demonstration projects to promote innovative ideas and appropriate technologies. Please support ASPI's non-profit mission and help us keep the promise of positive change in Appalachia alive.

Actual Size

2025 Simple Lifestyle Calendar

In these exciting & tumultuous times, when issues worry at us & our future seems uncertain, we always have the choice to come to simplicity. To reduce our troubles down to what is essentially most important: family, love & growth, health & affections, environment - the miracle of being alive at all. We praise that simplicity & this incredible present moment, & vow to bring simplicity to all we encounter. Our 48th edition Calendar features photographs from 8 different artists from across the region.

Appalachian Wildflower Notecards - set of 6 different wildflowers with envelopes. Brilliant color photographs from naturalist Janet E. Kalisz.

Appalachian Notecard Series

Appalachian Simple Lifestyle Notecards - all new black & white set of 6 different mountain scenes with envelopes. Favorites from photographer Warren Brunner.

ASPI is a non-profit tax-exempt organization
